

Anna Andreoni

Anna has worked at management level in the Federal Government and in the general corporate world. She also had the opportunity to run a successful franchise business that had a national focus.

It was during her time within the corporate world that she embraced her passion and commenced taking on a stronger role in mentoring and coaching people. This eventually led Anna to following the path of becoming involved in Learning and Development.

Anna's drive, enthusiasm and passion for helping others is infectious and not to be underestimated. A lively coach and experienced facilitator, Anna's diversity of experience in the public and private sectors provides her with unique insights into the employment environment in Adelaide. Her focus is always on ensuring that the individuals she is assisting gain the knowledge and skills they need to achieve their ultimate goals.
